Problem Statement

Singapore has installed Automated External Defibrillators (AEDs) in many locations which are accessible to the public. The use of AEDs is vital to resuscitate casualties with cardiac arrest and increase their chance of survival.

In this project, I will find out if there are locations in Singapore which are not installed with AEDs.

Dataset

Data from data.gov.sg will be used in this project. The dataset contains location details of each locality installed with AED.